- TERMS AND CONDITIONS -

Tour Cost: The Tour Cost is based upon an agreed to minimum number of full paying participants and specific activities as set forth on the sample itinerary. Failure to reach the minimum number of paying participants and/or the addition of new activities to the Tour may necessitate an increase to the final Tour Cost. Junior Tours reserves the right to pass along to the Group any and all unforeseen increases in supplier costs (e.g. fuel surcharges, taxes or fees) imposed by airlines, motorcoach companies or other vendors. Fees for airline checked baggage are not part of the tour package cost and are payable directly to the airline at time of airport check in.

General Payment Procedures: Please go to www.juniortoursonline.com to register. If you prefer to pay by check, please mail your completed Registration Form and 1st Deposit to Junior Tours by the date indicated on the other side of this form. Only one registrant per form. Junior Tours will email you a username and password to access your account. Your canceled check is your receipt. There is a $25 fee for all returned checks. A $25 late fee will be imposed on any account more than 5 days in arrears.

Standard Cancellation Policy: The Group Leader has the sole discretion to make all decisions on behalf of the Group in regard to the Tour and whether to reschedule or cancel the Tour if conditions warrant a change. Any decision reached by the Group Leader and Junior Tours is binding on all registered tour participants. All payments received, less non-recoverable deposits, will be applied to the new tour if the Tour is rescheduled. All payments received, less non-recoverable deposits and a $200 per person booking fee, will be refunded if the Tour is canceled.

If an individual Tour Participant wants to cancel from a scheduled tour, they must notify Junior Tours in writing. Junior Tours will retain:
25% of the Tour Price if cancellation notice is received 90 days or more prior to departure.
50% of the Tour Price if cancellation notice is received more than 46-89 days prior to departure.
100% of the payments received if cancellation notice is received 45 days or less prior to departure.

All payments are fully transferrable to a new replacement. Transfers cannot be made to a person who is already registered for the Tour. For groups that are flying, name change fees may apply within 60 days of departure.

Insurance Protection:

Junior Tours recommends that each person purchase Travel Insured International Student Deluxe Plan with the optional upgrade 'Cancel For Any Reason' protection. Instructions on how to purchase the insurance will be emailed to each tour participant after the first deposit is processed. The insurance must be purchased prior to your final tour payment.

Individuals who purchase the insurance are entitled to a 100% refund of any monies lost after applying the Standard Cancellation Policy if they can document that they are cancelling for a 'qualified reason'. Qualified reasons include, but are not limited to, things such as unforeseen sickness, accidental injury, death, weather causing delay or cancellation of travel, jury duty, military personnel called to emergency duty for a disaster other than war, etc. Up until 48 hours before the scheduled departure, individuals who purchase the insurance are entitled to a 75% refund of any monies lost after applying the Standard Cancellation Policy if they are applying the CFAR (Cancel For Any Reason) protection. Additional information, including terms and conditions, can viewed at <https://juniortours.com/insurance>

Medical History & Release: You must submit to your Group Leader a complete and accurate Medical History & Release which he or she may send to Junior Tours. Any medical or physical conditions that chaperones should know of that may interfere with your participation on the Tour or with others on the Tour must be stated on the Form. I authorize the adults on my Tour to obtain emergency treatment as deemed necessary by medical professionals.

Conduct Expected: Participants are responsible for exercising sound judgment, caution and respect for people, places and things while on tour. A guideline of expected behavior is outlined in the "Rules and Regulations" as posted on our website at <https://juniortours.com>. Failure to comply with the Rules as set forth on our website and by the Group Leader and/or chaperones may result in the participant being sent home at his or her own expense with no refund. Each Tour Participant is responsible for paying for any damage to the hotel, motorcoach or other property damage caused while on tour.

Responsibility Clause: Junior Tours, its employees, shareholders, directors, agents, group leaders and chaperones (collectively "Junior Tours") does not own, operate or control any person or entity which provides goods or services for your Tour including, for example, lodging facilities, transportation companies, guides, entertainment or sightseeing operators, restaurants, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Junior Tours is not liable for any negligent or willful act of any such person or entity, or of any third party.

Without limitation, Junior Tours is not responsible for any injury, loss or damage to person or property, death, delay or inconvenience in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether occasioned by or resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God, force majeure, acts of government, war, civil unrest, insurrection, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, lost or stolen belongings, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes or other means of transportation or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely, dangers associated with animals, insects or pests, sanitation problems, food poisoning, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, lack of or unacceptable quality of medical care, difficulty in evacuation in case of a medical or other emergency, or for any other cause beyond the direct control of Junior Tours.

Changes in hotels or itinerary may be made at the discretion of Junior Tours if deemed necessary or desirable. Junior Tours reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a member of any tour. Junior Tours is not responsible for any lost or stolen items while on Tour. Any likeness (video or photo) taken of a Tour Participant, or any statement or comment made by a Tour Participant, may be used, published or reproduced for promotion, distribution, advertising in print or digital media by Junior Tours without compensation.

Junior Tours specifically disclaims any and all responsibility for the general supervision and behavior of tour participants. The number of complimentary chaperones provided by Junior Tours is not a recommendation as to the actual number of chaperones that should accompany the Tour. The actual number of chaperones accompanying the tour shall be determined by the Group in its reasonable discretion. Junior Tours reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a member of any tour

Binding Arbitration: Any dispute concerning, relating or referring to this Agreement, the brochure or any other literature concerning the tour, or the tour itself, shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§1-16, either according to the then existing Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or pursuant to the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc. (JAMS). Such proceedings will be governed by substantive (but not procedural) New Jersey law and will take place in Newark, New Jersey. The arbitrator and not any federal, state, or local court or agency shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. By agreeing to these terms and conditions, both of us are waiving our right to a trial by jury.

New York City Proof of Vaccination Requirements

On July 30th 2021, The Broadway League announced that the owners and operators of all 41 Broadway theaters in New York City will require vaccinations for audience members for all performances through October 31, 2021. Exceptions will be made for children under 12 and people with a medical condition or closely held religious belief that prevents vaccination. These guests will be required to provide proof of a negative Covid-19 PCR test taken within 72 hours of the performance start time, or a negative Covid-19 antigen test taken within 6 hours of the performance start time.

For performances in November 2021 and beyond, theater owners anticipate a review of policies in September, and, says the League, may include “a relaxation of certain provisions if the science dictates.

New York City has been taking a heavy-handed approach to encouraging all people to get vaccinated now. The Mayor of NYC announced that beginning September 13th, proof of vaccination will be required for indoor dining. Details are yet to be worked out on how this will be enforced. This policy will also be updated as conditions warrant.

Junior Tours respects each tour participant’s personal freedom. For those tour who choose not to show proof of vaccination, a credit will be given for any activity missed and alternative scheduling may be discussed with the group leaders.
